Introduction:

Purpose: Library login form should allow the students or staff to login to library form so they can use the library services.

A. Product perspective:

- show login screen

- user frienndly

- should allow both student and staff

Product function:

- should allow only registered users

- Give error messgae for incorrect password

- Show the details of recent login

overall description:

The login form must be secure, protected and contain buttons like reset password, re-enter or delete options.

Constraints:

- Good internet connection

- keeps user limits

- it is web based application

Functional requirements:

- the system should allow:

- student and staff login

- Allows only registered user

- unauthorized access should ne denied.

Non Functional requrements:

- reliable

- qick

- secure

- user friendly

Acceptance criteria:

- library form must be safe and secure.

- everyone must get to login easily

- Give error message if its incorrect

- must contain reset password